

Refund of Domestic Water Charges in Circumstances Where a Customer is Deceased

Please complete this form and return it to us so that we can issue the refund cheque to the appropriate person entitled to receive the refund on behalf of the deceased customer. Where the deceased customer has left a will, then Irish Water will pay the Refund to the person(s) named as executor(s) in the will. Where there is no will or no executor available, then Irish Water will send the refund to the person(s) who is entitled to take care of the legal affairs of the customer (i.e. to the person(s) who is entitled to apply to the Probate Office to have the deceased customer's affairs settled.)

Where there is no will, the entitlement to take care of the legal affairs of the deceased customer, is in the following order:

- (a) Spouse or Civil Partner;
- (b) Children;
- (c) Grandchildren and then Great Grandchildren
- (d) Parent;
- (e) Brother or Sister;
- (f) More distant relatives.
