Uisce Éireann reserves the right to seek further samples if necessary. For a new wastewater stream, the characteristics should be based on best available information e.g. a desktop analysis of a similar process elsewhere.

The following tables must be completed per LoW code. If there is more than one LoW code the table should be copied and provided as additional information for each wastewater type.

Please indicate the source of the parameter results. If applicable, indicate the number of samples upon which the wastewater characteristic analysis is based.		Tick	No. Of Samples
